Indy 6.1/5.7 Mod Man Intake - The modular single plane horsepower manifold! It's very versatile.

Through extensive dyno testing, Indy Cylinder Head has developed a modular intake manifold with interchangeable billet aluminum tops. Single four, two four, 6 pack, supercharger, or EFI systems are available. One runner system with the ability to change induction sources without taking the manifold off the engine. If a person chooses, coils can also be mounted under the manifold with Indy cast aluminum valve covers and 16 functional plug wires for a great look! Stock covers and wires can also be used for a more economical engine build.
